Amendments made in Section 129- Detention/Seizure/Release of and conveyances in transit

A. In order to secure the release of the goods/conveyances, the concerned persons had to pay tax, interest, and penalty. Now, with effect from 01.01.2022, they are required to pay the penalty or furnish proper security for the penalty amount. But, the penalty payable under Section 129 for the release of goods/conveyances has been increased from 100% to 200% of the tax payable as tabulated below:

Clause	Payment
129(a)	Taxable goods	A penalty equal to 200% of the tax
Where the owner		payable comes forward to	Exempted	An amount of 2% of the value of goods make the payment	goods	or Rs. 25,000/-; whichever is less 129(b)		A penalty equal to 50% of the value of Where the owner	Taxable goods	goods or 200% of the tax payable;
does not come		whichever is higher forward	Exempted	An amount of 5% of the value of goods goods	or Rs. 25,000/-; whichever is less

- B. Prior to 01.01.2022, if neither the owner of the goods nor the transporter pays the tax, interest & penalty within 14 days (period can be further reduced if the goods are perishable/hazardous) of detention or seizure, then further proceedings for confiscation of goods/conveyance will be initiated u/s 130. Post 01.01.2022, if the concerned person does not pay the penalties within fifteen days from the date of the order imposing the penalty, the officer can dispose of the seized goods and conveyance to recover the penalty. However, the transporter can seek release of the conveyance by making the payment of the penalty mentioned in the aforesaid table or Rs. 1,00,000/-; whichever is less.
- C. Sec. 107(6) of the CGST Act, 2017 provides for making a pre-deposit of 10% of the disputed tax amount for filing the appeal and staying the recovery. The quantum of pre-deposit for filing an appeal against the order passed under Section 129 of the CGST Act is 25% of the penalty amount.

Confiscation of goods or conveyances and levy of penalty

Section 130(2) provides that the amount of fine payable by the person in lieu of confiscation shall be as the officer thinks fit but shall not be less than the penalty that is equal to the tax payable on the given goods. An amendment has been made to the effect that the aggregate of such fine and penalty shall not be less than the penalty equal to the tax payable on such goods.
